

City	Population	For owner surrendered animals, does the facility euthanize on request of owner and if so, is a fee charged for this service.	Does facility offer pick up service for owner surrendered animal(s) or is the owner responsible for bringing the animal(s) to facility.	If an animal is deemed aggressive and/or has a bite history, are pictures of this animal posted to social media.	Are aggressive/bite animals allowed to go to an approved rescue group.	Are other facilities setting traps for domesticated animals or wildlife animals?	What are your policies and procedures for all stray animals that appear to be sick/injured?
Bartlett	56,488	No, we do not euthanize on request of owner.	The owner is responsible.	No	Only in extreme circumstances.	No	The animal is held for a period of three days. During that time if they need emergency medical care, they will be taken to the veterinarian.
Cookeville	31,154	No, we do not euthanize on request of owner.	The owner is encouraged, however Animal Control will come pick up the animal at no cost if the owner cannot bring it in themselves.	No	Yes	No	Depending on the severity of the injury or illness, the partner veterinarian will be consulted and if treatment is feasible, then the animal will be treated. If the illness or injury is terminal or too severe, the animal will be euthanized.
Germantown	40,123	No, we do not euthanize on request of owner.	The owner is responsible.	No	This is a judgement call on a case by case basis.	No	If an animal needs emergency medical care, it will be provided. However, if the veterinarian deems the injuries or illness to severe, the veterinarian will authorize euthanasia.