

City	Contact	Position	Email	Phone	Does the city own or control drainage easements on private property within the city?	Does the city enclose the drainage way within the easement at the owner's request?	Who pays for the enclosure?	Does the city allow the property owner to enclose the drainage way within the easement?	Does the city require city design? City design review?	Does your city have an ordinance or regulations, stating whether or not enclosures are allowed?
Brentwood (43,889)	Steve Foster	City Engineer	steve.foster@brentwoodtn.gov	(615)371-0080	Control	No	N/A	Yes	City design review	No
Bristol (26,702)	Jacob Chandler	City Engineer	jchandler@bristoltn.org	(423)989-5585	For systems that receive runoff from a publically maintained street, the City controls the easement, but owns the physical system. For private drainage easements, the City does not own or control those easements or systems.	No	N/A	Yes with properly approved plans from the City and TDEC if needed.	N/A	No
Cleveland (41,285)	Brian Beck	City Engineer	bbeck@clevelandtn.gov	(423) 479-1913	Both	At times	Property owner or city depending on size	Yes	Engineering department will design pipe size	Yes
Cookeville (31,154)	Greg Brown	Public Works Director	gbrown@cookeville-tn.gov	(931) 520-5247	Own	No	N/A	Yes	Neither	Yes
Franklin (70,908)	Jeff Willoughby	Stormwater Management Coordinator	jeff.willoughby@franklintn.gov	(615) 550-6651	Both	No	N/A	No	N/A	No
Germantown (40,123)	Tim Bierdz	Storm Water Engineer	tbierdz@germantown-tn.gov	(901) 757-7286	Both	No		No		No
Kingsport (51,274)	David Edwards	Stormwater Manager	davidedwards@kingsporttn.gov	(423) 343-9845	No	No	N/A	Yes	General assessment	N/A
Maryville (27,536)	Dale Jayne	Stormwater Program Manager	dfjayne@maryville-tn.gov	(865) 273-3512	Both	No	N/A	Yes	City design review	No
Oak Ridge (29,330)	Amy Snyder	Stormwater Program Coordinator	asnyder@oakridgetn.gov	(865) 425-1875	Both	No	N/A	No	N/A	Yes