

City	Does your city require an application and permit to hold a special event or “mass gathering”?	If yes, how do charge for the permit and associated services provided by the city? (i.e. police or public works services)	Could you provide a copy of your policy and fee structure by email or fax?
Brentwood	Permits are not issued. The procedure is to go before the planning committee for approval.	There is a fee for going before the planning committee, but otherwise, no charge.	n/a
Bristol	Yes	No Charge	Written policy not available, will send copy of application forms (RECEIVED)
Cleveland	Yes, a permit is needed for events and a separate permit if there is a tent.	$500 refundable deposit is required for events. $5000 refundable deposit for tents Proof of liability insurance (must be for $1,000,000)	Will send policy and forms
Collierville	Yes	No charge for permit, may be a fee for renting certain spaces, like parks	Will send policy (RECEIVED)
Gallatin	No permits required for most things, there are parade and demonstration permits.	There are no fees associated with holding events. Depending on the type of event, if it is on city property, must have proof of liability insurance	In city code

City	Does your city require an application and permit to hold a special event or “mass gathering”?	If yes, how do charge for the permit and associated services provided by the city? (i.e. police or public works services)	Could you provide a copy of your policy and fee structure by email or fax?
LaVergne	Anything on the street requires a permit, like a parade, 5k, or demonstration. No permits required for festivals held in city parks.	No fees	In city code