

Grant Writers in Selected Tennessee Cities
MTAS Research and Information Center | March 2018

1. Does your organization employ a full-time grant writer?

City	Yes/No
Tullahoma	No, grant writing is primarily done by our Community Coordinator.
Crossville	No
Gallatin	No, department heads usually apply and write their own grant applications.
Athens	No. Our department heads write their own grants.
Bartlett	No
Cleveland	No
Kingsport	No
Cookeville	No – our grants are submitted by department representatives or by our ECD coordinator
Chattanooga	Yes. We have grant writers in a variety of agencies. Their submissions are based on their area of expertise
Covington	No
Dyersburg	No, we do not have a full-time grant writer.
Jackson	No
Elizabethton	No

2. If no, does your organization contract grant writing services out to an outside source?

City	Yes/No
Tullahoma	No
Crossville	No
Gallatin	Our Economic Development office employs a Special Projects Director who assists with questions on grants and grant funding.
Athens	No
Bartlett	No
	No. We have personnel in different departments who will prepare grants as part of duties of their job.
Kingsport	Yes, on occasion

City	Yes/No
Cookeville	From time to time our development district or human resource agency requests to submit grants on our behalf
Chattanooga	No
Covington	No
Dyersburg	No - Our City Recorder has experience writing grants and along with some other employee's help, writes ours.
Jackson	No
Elizabethton	Sometimes through the State Planning Office, but most times this is done by our Director of Planning and Economic Development

Contacts:

Name	Organization	Contact Number
Casta Brice	City of Tullahoma
Leah Crockett	City of Crossville	931.456.5681
Debbie Johnson	City of Gallatin	615.451.5890
Nina Edmonds	City of Athens
Ted Archdeacon	City of Bartlett	901.385.5515
Jeff Davis	City of Cleveland	423.559.3313
George DeCroes	City of Kingsport
Gail Fowler	City of Cookeville	931.520.5256
Alicia Niehoff	City of Chattanooga	423.643.7208
Tiny Barton	City of Covington	901.475.7170
Lynn Henning	City of Jackson	731.425.8252
Angie Lyons	City of Elizabethton	423.547.6248

Thanks to everyone for responding to this survey.